12/01/23	Belton Barrow Race This item was discussed at length including the advice received from ERNLLCA regarding the Barrow Race and the storage of the wheelbarrows. The council's container now has a great deal of room in it. If the Belton Lights Committee and the Barrow Race Committee wish to store items in the container then a request should be made to the council and proof of insurance supplied. Cllr Walsh stated that he did think that there had been sufficient discussion on this subject. Cllr Padgett proposed that both the wheelbarrows and Belton Lights Committee provide information to the council on how much space they require, seconded by Cllr Drury. All in favour. Cllr Waller will contact Belton Lights Committee. It was resolved that both the wheelbarrows and Belton Lights Committee provide information to the council on how much space they require.
13/01/22	Noticeboards Cllr Baker Cliff advised that the noticeboard at Beltoft is not the property of the Parish Council and is on the Methodist Chapel land. If the Methodist Chapel are in agreement the Parish Council could place a new noticeboard on their land. The Clerk advised that the Parish Council would need the Methodist's agreement to this in writing. New noticeboards and quotations were discussed. The Clerk will contact the company to obtain a revised quotation, costs for installation and see if collection is possible.
14/01/23	Handyperson The Clerk will perform the Handyperson's induction on 1 February. The handyperson will require boots. Clerk to contact Ward Cllr Mitchell for litter picking bags.
